
Contents

Author Profile	iii
Acknowledgements	iii
Business Intelligence	iv
Executive Summary	v
Chapter 1: The Origins of Shared Services	1
Executive Summary	1
Introduction: The Path to Shared Services	2
BP Exploration Case Report	2
Outsourcing and Corporate Branding	4
Whitbread Case Report	4
The Birth of Shared Services	5
The first shared services centres	5
Early shared services successes	6
Alcoa Case Report	5
AlliedSignal Case Report	7
The New York Times Company Case Report	7
Other examples	7
Empirical Evidence of Shared Services Success	7
From cost to service benefits	8
Selecting HR Processes for Shared Service Centres	8
Survey evidence	8
Case study evidence	9
Defining Shared Services	10
Steve Joyce, The Hackett Group	10
Philip King, Atos Origin	12
Sue Goodman, Partnership UK	13
How this Report defines shared services	13
The Drive for HR Service Improvement	14
How to Use this Report	15
A pathway to success	15
Answers to the most frequently asked questions	15
Learn from the best practice case studies	15
Eastern Health Shared Services	16
KeyBank	16
Procter & Gamble	16
Scotiabank	16
Statoil	17
Sun Microsystems	17
Surrey County Council	17
Realizing the potential of shared services	18
Ten Steps to Creating an Effective Shared Services Centre	18
1 Win management support	18
2 Plan for success	18

4 Communicate and consult	19
5 Build strong staff resources	19
6 Create a service culture	19
7 Draw on your e-HR strengths	19
8 Set the right goals	19
9 Apply the right measures	20
10 Drive the process forward	20
Chapter 2: Making the Business Case for Shared Services	21
Executive Summary	21
Introduction: Balancing Benefits Against Risks	22
Reasons for Implementing Shared Services	23
Institute for Employment Studies findings	23
Political reasons	23
Eastern Health Shared Services	24
Royal Bank of Scotland	24
Surrey County Council	25
The Business Case for Cost Reduction	25
Deloitte shared services study	26
case study cost reductions	26
Process efficiency	27
Changing the value proposition	27
Timeliness of response	28
The Business Case for Service Improvement	28
Case study service improvement benefits	29
The Business Case for Risk Management and Mitigation	30
Dealing with Sarbanes-Oxley	30
Sarbanes-Oxley and HR	31
Why risk management is a significant benefit	32
Risk management at KeyBank	32
Shared Services and Globalization	33
Shared Services and Acquisitions	33
Alcoa Case Report	33
Invisibility – the downside of success	34
Benefits from Repositioning the HR Organization	35
Freeing up the time of senior HR executives	35
Transactional benefits	36
Benefits for HR – Keybank	36
Benefits for HR – The Royal Bank of Scotland	36
Self-Assessment Checklist	38
Chapter 3: Scoping Shared Services and Creating a Robust Plan	41
Executive Summary	41
Introduction: Getting the Measure of the Task	43
Creating a Path from Business Needs and Strategy to Implementation	43
1. Clear project definition	43
2. Business case creation	44
3. Gap analysis	44
4. Business planning and strategy	44

The Importance of Senior Management Buy-in	44
Why FedEx values support from the top	45
Essential Elements for the Plan	45
Gaining Buy-in at all Levels of the Organization	46
A major change effort	46
A change and communications team	46
InterContinental Hotels Group Case Report	47
Cascading the buy-in	48
Mandating shared services	48
People – Finding Staff with the Right Combination of Capabilities and Competencies	49
Hiring new staff	49
Combining new and existing staff	49
Case Examples	50
Procter & Gamble	50
Royal Bank of Scotland	50
Eastern Health Shared Services	50
Scotiabank	50
Teamworking	52
Sun Microsystems Case Report	52
Scotiabank Case Report	54
Information Technology	54
Technology: the experience of the pioneers	54
Employee self-service	55
Case study examples	55
Eastern Health Shared Services	56
KeyBank	56
Scotiabank	57
Statoil	57
Surrey County Council	57
Self-service: the future of shared services	58
Location: Where to Locate the Shared Services Operation	58
Offshoring: the history	59
Offshoring and outsourcing	59
Offshoring and HR	59
Case study examples	60
Standard Chartered Bank Case Report	61
Self-Assessment Checklist	65
Chapter 4: Integrating Shared Services into the HR Delivery Model	67
Executive Summary	67
Introduction	68
Processes Under the Spotlight	68
Trends in Financial Shared Services	69
Diageo Case Report	69
HR and Value Adding Processes	70
Shared Services and Centres of Expertise	70
The case for renaming shared services	72
Criteria for Migrating Processes	72

Begin with the basics	72
Migrating core processes	73
A wide spectrum of experience	73
Royal Bank of Scotland Case Report	74
Shared Services and the Wider HR Delivery Model	74
The role of the organizational strategy	74
The people strategy	74
Transforming HR	75
Tactical considerations	75
No simple checklist	75
HR shared services as an equal partner	75
Sun Microsystems Case Report	76
Procter & Gamble Case Report	78
Scotiabank Case Report	79
Statoil Case Report	79
Royal Bank of Scotland Case Report	80
Shared Services and Business Partnering	81
Taking Shared Services out of HR	82
Outsourcing	83
Procter & Gamble Case Report	84
Sun Microsystems Case Report	85
When to outsource	85
Self-Assessment Checklist	86
Chapter 5: Aligning HR Shared Services with Customer Needs	89
Executive Summary	89
Introduction	90
Champion International Case Report	91
Charging for HR Shared Services	94
Survey evidence on charging	95
Charging: case study evidence	96
Performance Measurement	96
Service level agreements	97
Why SLAs should evolve	98
City of Cape Town Case Report	99
Surrey County Council Case Report	101
Royal Bank of Scotland Case Report	102
KeyBank Case Report	103
Scotiabank Case Report	103
Statoil Case Report	104
Keeping metrics to the vital few	106
Governance Boards	106
Eastern Health Shared Services Case Report	106
InterContinental Hotels Group Case Report	107
Self-Assessment Checklist	108

Chapter 6: Culture and People Issues	109
Executive Summary	109
Introduction: Defining Culture	110
The fallout from strategy and culture clashes	112
How to ensure culture is aligned with strategy	113
Culture: The HR Challenge	113
Cultural Resistance	113
Research evidence challenges	114
The role of communications	115
The Dangers of Not Recognizing the Change Challenge	115
InterContinental Hotels Groups Case Report	115
Selecting the team	116
How to Develop and Sustain an Execution Culture	116
Phase one: creating a climate for change	117
Phase two: engaging and enabling the entire organization	118
Phase three: implementing and sustaining change	119
Overcoming Resistance from the Business	120
Statoil Case Report	121
Procter & Gamble Case Report	121
Sun Microsystems Case Report	122
Overcoming Resistance from HR	123
The biggest change issues: the research evidence	123
New York Times Company Case Report	123
Eastern Health Shared Services Case Report	124
Surrey County Council Case Report	125
Scotiabank Case Report	126
Recruiting new staff into the centre	126
Royal Bank of Scotland Case Report	126
Procter & Gamble Case Report	127
Career development	127
Shared Services and Business Partnering	128
Standard Chartered Bank Case Report	129
Scotiabank Case Report	129
Self-Assessment Checklist	131
Chapter 7: The Future for Shared Services	133
Executive Summary	133
Introduction	134
A flexible service delivery solution	134
The Prospects for HR Offshoring	135
Prediction 1: the adoption of HR offshoring	135
Moving Shared Services up the Value Chain	135
Shared Services Heading for Obsolescence	136
Prediction 2: the move to higher value services	137
Prediction 3: the term ‘shared services’ will be revised or replaced	137
Prediction 4: more high potential staff will be attracted to shared services	137
Multi-functional Centres	137
Deloitte survey findings	137

Words of caution on multi-functional centres	138
Prediction 5: multi-functional centres to become the norm	138
Moving Administrative HR into Another Function	139
New Functional Configurations for the Knowledge Era	139
Prediction 6: administrative HR processes will be co-located with other functional administrative operations	140
Shared Services and the Wider HR Delivery Model	140
Prediction 7: HR needs to redefine the role of the HR business partner	141
Outsourcing	141
Prediction 8: outsourcing and insourcing will increasingly be seen as complementary	142
Virtualization	142
Koch Industries four stage model	142
Stage 1: Consolidation	142
Stage 2: Standardization	142
Stage 3: Optimization	143
Stage 4: Virtualization	143
Prediction 9: technology-enabled virtualization will become more common	144
Self Service	144
Prediction 10: self service will grow rapidly in importance	144
Shared Services: The Next Chapter	144
Critical Success Factors	145
Case Studies	149
KeyBank	150
Procter & Gamble	156
Scotiabank	163
Statoil	169
Sun Microsystems	178
Surrey County Council	186
References	193