
CONTENTS

Author Profile	iii
Acknowledgements	iii
Foreword	v
Preface	vii
Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Executive Summary	1
Section A: Context	2
Section B: Defining Shareholder Value	3
Sustainable Shareholder Value	3
Section C: The Pressure to Deliver Shareholder Value	5
Pressure on Institutional Investors	6
Alternative Homes for Capital	7
Section D: The Shortcomings of Conventional Accounting Measures	8
Reported Profit	8
Earnings Per Share	9
Return on Capital Employed	10
Section E: The Benefits of Shareholder-facing Approaches	10
EVA	10
CFROI	11
Section F: Perceived Weaknesses of Value-based Systems	11
Stakeholder Interests	12
E-commerce	12
Section G: Conclusion	13
Key Learning Points	13
Case Study: Electrolux	15
Chapter 2: Building and Communicating Shareholder Value – A Research Survey into Present Trends and Practice	25
Executive Summary	25
Section A: Ten Key Findings	26
Section B: Context	28
The Pressure to Deliver Shareholder Value	29
The Efficacy of Value-based Management Approaches	29
Corporate Performance Management Frameworks and Value Creation	29
Communicating Value Creation	29
Shareholder Value: Future Threats and Opportunities	29
Section C: The Pressure to Deliver Shareholder Value	30
Increasing Shareholder Pressure	30
Why Shareholder Pressure has Increased	31
Section D: The Efficacy of Value-based Management Approaches	32
Favoured Value-based Approaches	32
Consultancy Models Used	32

Value-based Approaches and Managerial Decision-making	33
Managerial Bonuses and Value Creation	33
Bonus Systems and the General Employee-base	35
ESOPs and Value Creation	37
Section E: Corporate Performance Management Frameworks and Value Creation	37
Usage of Corporate Performance Management Frameworks	38
Frameworks and Long-term Shareholder Value	38
Corporate Performance Management Frameworks and Value Creation Systems	38
Corporate Governance	39
Awareness of Corporate Strategy	40
Value-based Management, Strategic Planning and Budgeting	41
Section F: Communicating Value Creation	42
The Annual Report	42
Communicating Non-financial Metrics	43
Section G: Shareholder Value – Future Threats and Opportunities	44
The Pressures of Internet-based Working	44
Threats and Opportunities	45
Section H: Conclusion	46
Key Learning Points	47
Case Study: Hallco 1812	48
Chapter 3: Value-based Management Techniques Explained	59
Executive Summary	59
Section A: Context	60
Business Intelligence Survey	61
Section B: Value-added Systems	61
EVA	62
The System	62
Calculating EVA	63
Defining Capital	66
Capital Asset Pricing Model	66
Cost of Debt	68
Market Value Added	68
Increasing EVA	69
Views on the Efficacy of Value-based Approaches	70
Perceived Shortcomings	71
Section C: Cash Flow Return on Investment	73
The CFROI Framework	73
CAPM Shortcomings	75
Calculating CFROI	76
A Total System Approach	79
CFROI Shortcomings	79
Section D: Total Shareholder Return	80
TSR Explained	80
Boston Consulting Group Research	80
Cash Value Added	81
TSR Strengths	82
TSR Shortcomings	83
Misleading Comparisons	83

Section E: Conclusion	84
Key Learning Points	85
Case Study: Unilever Plc	86
Chapter 4: ‘Balanced’ Value-creating Approaches	99
Executive Summary	99
Section A: Context	100
Section B: Taking a ‘Stakeholder’ Approach	101
Stakeholder Benefits	101
Case Report: The Co-operative Bank	102
Case Study Examples	103
Disadvantages of a ‘Stakeholder’ Approach	105
Section C: Corporate Strategy	106
Section D: The Balanced Scorecard	107
The Balanced Scorecard Explained	107
Principles of the Strategy-focused Organization	111
Scorecard Strengths	113
Scorecard Weaknesses	114
Section E: The Balanced Scorecard and Value-based Methodologies	116
Key Differences	116
Case Report: Whirlpool Corporation	117
CFROI and Non-financial Metrics	119
Section F: Intellectual Capital	121
Intellectual Capital Explained	121
Case Report: Skandia	122
Case Report: Clarica	125
Section G: Conclusion	126
Key Learning Points	126
Case Study: Nova Scotia Power Inc	127
Case Study: Clarica	138
Chapter 5: Value-based Decision-making	151
Executive Summary	151
Section A: Context	152
Section B: Research Findings	152
Business Intelligence Survey Findings	152
Boston Consulting Group Study Findings	153
Case Report: Dell Computer Company	154
Section C: Management and Value Creation	156
Managerial Skills-set	156
Managerial Commitment	157
Board Commitment	157
Case Report: Tate & Lyle	158
Case Study Examples	159
Reporting Economic Profit	160
Section D: Recognizing the Source of Value	160
Value Assessment	161
Value Driver Analysis	163
Management Process Redesign	164
Value Reporting	164
Section E: Strategic Planning	164

Making Trade-offs	165
Rolling Strategic Forecasts	165
Valuing Improvement Initiatives	165
Strategic Planning: Key Learning Point	166
CFROI and Decision-making Processes	166
Section F: Real Options	167
Defining 'Real Options'	167
Practical Example	168
EVA and Real Options	169
Case Report: US Assembler	169
The Importance of Risk	170
Section G: Budgeting and Value-based Approaches	171
Section H: Mergers and Acquisitions	172
The 'Ego' Problem	172
Synergy and Price Evaluation	172
Case Report: Herman Miller	173
Case Report: Manitowoc	174
Case Report: Clarica	175
PA Consulting Research Findings	176
Section I: Conclusion	177
Key Learning Points	178
Case Study: Manitowoc Company, Inc	179
Chapter 6: Implementing and Communicating Value-based Management Deep Within an Organization	189
Executive Summary	189
Section A: Context	190
Major Change Programme	191
Section B: Continuous Improvement	192
Day-to-day Performance Improvements	192
Thinking Small as Well as Big	192
Devolving Value Targets	193
Case Report: Hallco 1812	193
Case Report: Siemens KWU	194
Section C: Culture Change	195
A Long Process	195
Stern Stewart and the Importance of the Corporate 'Mindset'	195
Case Study Examples	196
Case Report: Millennium Inorganic Chemicals	197
Key EVA Errors	197
Section D: Training and Education	198
A Cascaded Approach to Training	199
Case Report: Tate & Lyle	199
Training Materials	200
Section E: Internal Communications	200
Business Intelligence Survey Finding	201
A Circumspect Approach	201
Managerial Communication	203
Case Report: Millennium Chemicals	203
Case Report: Hallco 1812 – Fantasy Football	203
Communicating the EVA Calculation	204

Communicating Performance Figures	205
Piloting Value-creation	206
Section F: Conclusion	206
Key Learning Points	207
Case Study: Herman Miller	208
Chapter 7: Compensation and Shareholder Value	221
Executive Summary	221
Section A: Context	222
Section B: Senior Management Compensation and Value Creation	223
Executive Compensation and Poor Performance	223
Cadbury Recommendations	224
Survey Evidence	224
PricewaterhouseCoopers Research	226
Section C: EVA Incentive-compensation System	228
Research Findings	228
The Perceived Benefits to Organizations of Taking this Approach	229
An Explanation of How an EVA Bonus System Works	230
Examples of EVA Incentive-compensation Plans	231
Business Intelligence Research	231
Differing Bonus System Approaches	232
Section D: Share Option Schemes	234
Research Findings: Paying for Performance	234
Share Option Schemes and Shareholder Value Creation	235
Management Share Option Guidelines	237
Employee Share Option Programmes (ESOPs)	238
Case Report: Tesco	239
Advisers' Viewpoints	239
Non-executive Directors and Shareholdings	240
Case Report: Pilkington	241
Section E: The Balanced Scorecard and Shareholder Value	242
Case Report: Nova Scotia Power Inc	242
Case Report: UNUM Corporation	243
Weighted Measures	244
The Balanced Scorecard and EVA	245
Case Report: Whirlpool	245
Section F: Conclusion	247
Key Learning Points	248
Case Study: Sirona	250
Chapter 8: Communicating Value Creation to Shareholders and Wider Stakeholder Groups	259
Executive Summary	259
Section A: Context	260
Research Findings	261
Section B: Communicating Economic Performance	261
Case Study Examples	262
Investor Interest	262
Shareholder Views on EVA	263
Not Depending on EVA	264
Section C: What Investors Look For	265

What Drives Value in the Business?	265
The Organization's Ability to Sustain Value Over Time	266
The Quality of the Management Team	267
The Present Stock Market Valuation	267
EPS and the Financial Markets	268
HOLT Value Associates/Deloitte Consulting Research Findings	268
Section D: Research Findings	269
Section E: The Importance of Non-financial Data	272
Business Intelligence Research Findings	272
Investor Views	273
Ernst & Young Research Findings	274
Section F: HOLT Value Template	275
Section G: Shareholder Questions	276
'Recommended Model of Business Reporting: Non-financial and Forward-looking Measures'	278
Section H: Annual Report	280
Research Findings	280
Prototype Plc	281
Case Report: Skandia – Reporting Intellectual Capital	285
E-reporting	286
Section I: Conclusion	287
Key Learning Points	288
Case Study: The Co-operative Bank	289
Chapter 9: Implications of the New Economy and Report Conclusions	299
Executive Summary	299
Section A: Context	300
Section B: The DotCom Explosion	301
Investment Strategies and Internet-based Companies	301
Method in the Madness	302
Historical Precedents	302
Future Market Options	303
Section C: The Implications for Traditional Companies	304
Bricks and Clicks Collaborations	305
Section D: The New Economy and Conventional Accounting Measures	306
A Value-based Mindset?	306
EVA and Internet Companies	307
Case Report: RealNetwork Inc	307
Section E: Report Conclusions	308
Key Learning Points	318
Case Study: Wannago.com	320
Appendix – Listings	329
References	331
Index	339