

---

Contents

Author Profile	iii
Acknowledgments	iii
Business Intelligence	iv
Preface	v
Chapter 1: The New Context of Reward	1
What you will learn from this chapter	1
Introduction	2
1999: a benchmark year	2
The Ten Drivers of New Reward approaches and Practices	2
Reward Issues and Challenges: Research Findings	3
World at Work studies	3
Strategic Reward Shortcomings	5
Further Issues	6
Reward Issues and Challenges	6
Corporate and reward team agendas	6
Employees and employment	7
The Challenges of Implementing Total Reward	8
Performance, Reward and Culture	9
Overview: Why Rethink Reward Strategy?	10
Potential advantages	10
Consequences of inaction	11
Take the Self-Assessment Test	11
References	13
Chapter 2: Engagement, Value Creation and the Human Dimension of Reward	15
What you will learn from this chapter	15
Introduction: People Make the Difference	16
Interpretations and Connections	16
How Companies Use Reward to Improve Performance	17
The Business Case and Potential Pay-offs	18
Levels of engagement	18
What human capital management can deliver	19
Implications for Practitioners	20
Human Capital and Reward	21
Optimizing value through reward	21
Valuing human capital	21
How companies make the connection between reward and human capital	22
Case Report: Royal Bank of Scotland	23
Case Report: Federal Express	24
Building Engagement into Reward	26
Connecting Engagement with Reward	28
How companies implement engagement policies	29

Case Report: St Luke's Communications	29
Case Report: Google	31
The Value Proposition and Brand	32
Proposition and brand: simple questions	32
What employees Want: Expert Views	33
How companies build and deploy their corporate value propositions	34
Case Report: Starbucks	35
Case Report: Richer Sounds	36
Overview: Rethinking the Human Dimension of Reward	37
The Key Challenges Summarized	38
Take the Reward Human Dimension Self-Assessment Test	38
References	40
Chapter 3: Developing Total Reward Strategy	43
What you will learn in this chapter	43
Introduction: The Scope of Total Reward	44
The Difficulties Posed by Total Reward	45
Reward Philosophy and Design	47
The need for reward philosophy	47
The link between reward and best-employer rating	47
Influences on reward philosophies and design	48
The Importance of the Corporate Context for Reward	48
How Companies are Tackling Reward Philosophy	49
Case Report: The Hartford Group	49
Case Report: Babcock and Wilcox	50
Reward and Business Strategy	51
The essentials of well-designed reward strategies	51
The Issue of Effectiveness	52
How Companies and Experts Interpret Reward Strategy	53
Case Report: Office of Personnel Management	54
Two Reward Strategy Models	55
The Star Model	55
Reward Strategy Roadmap	56
Approaches to Total Reward	56
What total reward entails	56
Establishing the business case: the crucial first step	57
How Companies and Consultancies Approach Total Reward	58
Case Report: Borders Group	59
Institute and Consultancy Interpretations of Total Reward	60
Overview	61
Potential advantages	61
Possible difficulties	62
Take the Reward Strategy Self-Assessment Test	63
References	64
Chapter 4: The Shift to Total remuneration	67
What you will learn from this chapter	67
Introduction: Rethinking the Financial Deal	68
What's New and What's Emerging?	68

The Potential Impact of Total Remuneration on Recruitment and Retention	70
Remuneration, Cost and Competitiveness	71
Cost containment and shifts in remuneration	71
The emphasis on long-term, sustainable performance	71
Strategic Remuneration Opportunities	72
How Companies are Tackling Cost Issues	73
Case Report: Nationwide Building Society	73
Case Report: Aflac Inc	74
Case Report: Lincoln Electric	75
Challenges in Total Remuneration Effectiveness	75
Pricing and ROI issues	75
Companies look to cover the cost of reward charges	76
Creating an Edge in Remuneration Strategy	76
Optimizing Total Remuneration Investments	77
Investment levels	77
Related costs	78
Competitiveness	78
Criteria for Regular Effectiveness Reviews	78
How Companies are Tackling Total Remuneration	79
Case Report: Cisco Systems	79
Case Report: Aflac Inc	80
Emerging Priorities in Pay, Bonus and Benefits	80
Sifting out what matters most	80
Priorities for base and variable pay	81
Defining criteria for differential rewards	81
Priorities for bonus use: the experts' views	82
Priorities for benefits: the experts' views	83
How Companies Tackle Pay, Bonus and Benefit Priorities	85
Case Report: Huntington Hospital	86
Case Report: Suncorp	87
Overview: Total Remuneration Reviews	88
Strategic tune-up for pay	88
Total remuneration review	88
Take the Total Remuneration Self-Assessment Test	89
References	90
Chapter 5: Building a Performance-Reward Culture	93
What you will learn in this chapter	93
Introduction: The Changing Context of Performance	94
Your total reward and performance management checklist	94
Expert Views on the Performance-Reward Focus	95
Tapping into the Discretionary Effort Factor	96
Satisfaction, motivation and reward expectations	96
Examples of Performance Cultures	96
Enabling High Performance across the Enterprise	98
What high performance organizations do well	98
Getting the Best from High Performers – and Others	99
The flow theory of engagement	100

How Companies are Paying for and Recognizing Performance	101
Case Report: Payless ShoeSource	102
Case Report: Graniterock	103
Improving and Aligning Performance Management with the Business	104
What performance management is all about	104
What good management performance looks like	107
How Companies are Tackling Performance Management Issues	109
Case Report: Office of Personnel Management (OPM)	109
Case Report: Daimler Chrysler	110
Performance Levers and Reinforcers – The Scope for Innovation	111
Extending the performance toolkit	111
The lever of motivation	112
Using recognition to raise performance	113
How companies use non-cash levers of performance	114
Case Report: Southwest Airlines	114
Case Report: PRC	115
Overview	116
Take the Performance-Reward Culture Self-Assessment Test	117
References	118
Chapter 6: The Work Environment and Participation	121
What you will learn in this chapter	121
Introduction: The Emerging Psycho-social Work Environment	122
Best Company Award Schemes	124
Great companies and best workplaces	125
Case Report: Colgate Palmolive Hellas	126
Changing Work Practices	128
Trends in work-life balance and flexible working	128
Trends and Issues in Health and Wellness	130
Emerging cost and complexity issues	131
How Companies Tackle Work Practice Issues	132
Case Report: Melaleuca	133
Case Report: Google	134
The Rise of Participative Cultures	135
How to build participation into the enterprise	135
The Management of Total Reward in the Workplace	137
Manager effectiveness checklists	138
How Companies are Building Workplace Participation	139
Case Report: Starbucks	140
Case Report: Cendant Car Rental	141
Financial Participation and Education	142
Ownership and profit sharing	142
Education for wealth creation	144
How Companies are Approaching Financial Participation	146
Case Report: Hypertherm	146
Case Report: Resources for Human Development (RHD)	147
Overview	149
Take the Work Environment and Participation Self-Assessment Test	150
References	151

Chapter 7: The Situational Context of Reward	155
What you will learn in this chapter	155
Introduction: Corporate Situations that Affect Reward	156
Effects of Globalization on Reward	157
Factors and challenges in global reward	157
Off-shoring and compensation models	158
Factoring in Cultural Issues	159
Impacts of Mergers and Acquisitions on Reward	160
Case Report: Verizon	161
Reward Responses to Competitive Drivers	162
The basics of productivity and skills	162
The need to flex total reward to local conditions	162
Case Report: Corning Inc	163
Reward and the Customer Interface	164
Reward as a Lever of Sales Force Effectiveness	166
Innovation and Reward	167
The case for and against rewarding innovation	168
Case Report: Whirlpool	168
Overview	169
Take the Situational Context Self-Assessment test	170
References	172
Chapter 8: Issues and Practices in Executive Compensation	173
What you will learn in this chapter	173
Introduction: Pressures Shaping Changes in Executive Reward	174
Pressures for Change and Transparency	175
Influences on executive pay	175
Setting differential ratios for executive and staff pay	176
Focus on executive and organization performance	177
Cash-based performance targets	178
The use of strategic performance measurement systems	179
Governance-related issues and practices	180
Board Roles in Executive Reward	181
Developments causing role change at board level	181
Chairman and non-executive director roles: issues and practices	183
New Purpose and Work of Remuneration Committees	185
Insights into compensation committee practice	186
The Use of Consultants	187
Overview	188
Take the Executive Reward Self-Assessment Test	189
References	191
Chapter 9: Roles in Reward Strategy and Implementation	193
What you will learn in this chapter	193
Introduction: How Reward Roles are Changing	194
Reward Leader and Team Roles	195
What reward leadership needs	195
Moving beyond compensation and benefits	196

The role of HR	196
Challenges for the Head of Reward	196
Reward Leader Capabilities in Case Study Organizations	197
Reward Team Roles and Work	198
How Case Organizations Define Roles and Responsibilities	199
Reward team structure	199
Reward team roles	200
Reward team success measures	200
Reward team attributes	200
Case Report: Cendant – Self-service Tool for Managers	201
Relationships that Drive Reward	202
Working with senior managers	202
HR, reward and line collaboration	203
Helping managers deliver rewards	205
Case Report: BT	205
Overview	207
Reward function staffing and pay level concerns	207
Take the Reward Function Self-Assessment Test	208
References	209
Chapter 10: The Future of Reward – An Overview	211
What you will learn in this chapter	211
The Future is Here – Now	212
Has reward change happened?	212
Future Trends Impacting on Reward	213
Business drivers and reward roles	213
What change means for the reward function	213
The opportunities for reward transformation – and the barriers	214
Future Agendas of Case Study Organizations	215
AstraZeneca’s education and communication agenda	215
Husky: formalizing recognition	215
Royal Bank of Scotland’s six-point programme	216
How We See the Future of Reward	216
Main Chapter Themes Summarized	216
Trends Affecting Reward over the Next Three Years	217
Take the Futures Self-Assessment Test	219
References	220
Case Studies	221
AstraZeneca in the UK	222
BT	228
HCA-HealthONE LLC	236
Nationwide Building Society	244
The Royal Bank of Scotland	253

---

Exhibits

Exhibit 3.1: One framework used by the OPM.	54
Exhibit 3.2: The Star Model: Lawler's Notion of Fit	55
Exhibit 3.3: How leading consultancies define Total Reward.	61

BT

Exhibit CS1: Seven key stages in the total reward transformation programme.	234
---	-----

HCA- HealthONE LLC

Exhibit CS2: Total reward tools	238
Exhibit CS3: Total reward sample statement	241

Nationwide Building Society

Exhibit CS4: The Committed and Engaged Person framework	246
---	-----